How to enter Casual Rounds For Handicap

Dear member

The new handicap system means that golfers need to hand in as many cards possible for their handicap index to be as accurate as possible.

Handicap cards do not have to be in competition and can be played off of whichever tee the golfer prefers.

Below is a short guide on how to enter a "casual round" for counting towards your handicap.

CASUAL ROUNDS PLAYED AT HILLSBOROUGH (new name for supplementary scores)

A social score can be entered to go towards your handicap anytime you play the course in a strokeplay round (not matchplay).

You will need to state your intent prior to the round and then must return your score for that round, if using either the How Did I Do App or the England Golf App you must sign in on these before your round.

After you have completed your round, you MUST enter your score into either the computer in the locker room, by using the How Did I Do App or by using the England Golf App.

You DO NOT need to hand in your scorecard after your social round so do not post in the scorecard box. If you have had an issue, then clearly explain this on the card and post in the scorecard box and it will be looked into. All other cards will be ignored.

CASUAL ROUNDS PLAYED AT A DIFFERENT COURSE

A social score can be entered to go towards your handicap anytime you play for away from Hillsborough in a strokeplay round (not matchplay).

You will need to register your intent prior to the round via the England Golf App. You will need to be within 2km of the course for this to work.
